

Invitation

Quantum Europe 2016: A New Era of Technology

17–18 May 2016, Amsterdam

Invitation and information

You are cordially invited for the conference Quantum Europe 2016: A New Era of Technology.

Information about the conference and the latest version of the programme can be found at the conference website: eu16.nl/quantumeurope.

Practical details of the conference venue and your stay in the Netherlands can be found in the Practical Notes here: dl.quantumeurope.eu/practicalnotes.pdf.

There is a limited number of tickets available for this conference and registration is on a first come first serve basis, so I encourage you to register with the link you received from Eventbrite as soon as possible.

Request to upload essential information

(Important: Your registration is not complete without this step.)

Within two weeks after you complete your Eventbrite registration, you will receive a login-account sent by EU-NL-2016@minbuza.nl. Via this account, you need to enter your personal data and upload a scan of your ID-document and a photo. This will be used to prepare your conference badge.

Hotels

Hotel rooms can be booked through www.preferredreservations.nl/EU2016. There is a limited number of rooms in several hotels pre-booked for this event. It is strongly recommended that you make a reservation as soon as possible.

Questions?

For general questions, please contact the organizers via quantumeurope@minez.nl.

I look forward to welcoming you to Amsterdam.

Yours faithfully,

Henk Kamp
Minister of Economic Affairs

